INSTRUCTIONS

1. Students are requested in their own interests, to write legibly.
2. This paper consists of TWO (2) pages. Please ensure that you all the pages.
3. All questions are compulsory.
4. During the course of your answers please refer to relevant case law and legislation.
QUESTION 1
Critically discuss the case of R v Cort [2003] WLR 1300.
During the course of your answer, you must show how (if at all) this case could be applicable in the South African Jurisdiction.

[30 Marks]

QUESTION 2
Andrew sees an exam paper on his professor’s desk. He makes a photocopy and leaves the original on the desk.
You are tasked with advising the prosecutor about what charge (if any) to lay against Andrew. During the course of your answer, please refer to any relevant case law and legislation which may be applicable.

[30 Marks]

QUESTION 3
Regarding matters that are sub judice, should the crime of contempt of court ex facie curia become abrogated by disuse?

[10 Marks]

TOTAL FOR PAPER: 70 MARKS