SECTION A
Answer all questions in this section
(10 Marks each)

Question 1
Name and explain two of the three effects of mass media on its audience.

Question 2
Describe the difference between the elections of the French and the American Presidents.

Question 3
Discuss Montesquieu’s climatic model.

Question 4
What do we mean when we refer to a country as having a ‘two party system’?

Question 5
Compare and contrast the majoritarian and proportional representation electoral systems.

SECTION B
Provide a response of about two to three pages to ONE of the following questions.

Question 6
Identify and explain the salient features of the British political system.
Question 7

Examine the different types of party systems by making reference to the countries studied and other relevant countries.

Question 8

Distinguish between parliamentary and presidential systems making reference to two of the countries studied.

(50)