Section One [25 marks]

Write approximately TEN lines on FIVE of the following topics. Each topic carries five marks. You should spend about 10 minutes on each topic you choose.

- The industrial revolution
- The development of the police force in England
- Transportation as a system of punishment
- The abolition of the slave trade
- The labour system known as indenture
- Abolition of the slave trade
- Foucault’s views on crime and punishment as reflected in texts you have read.
- Karl Marx
- Karl Marx
- The American base at Guantanamo Bay
- The war on terror.

Section Two [40 marks]

Write short essays of approximately one and a half to two pages on TWO of the following topics, using historical information from lectures, films and texts presented during the course. You should spend about 30 minutes on each topic that you choose.

Each topic carries 20 marks.

- How did Kimberley mine owners establish control over mine labour on the diamond fields between 1870 and 1885, and what were the long term implications of this?
- Why was it necessary for the Australian Government to apologise to the Aboriginal people of Australia, and do you consider that the apology was sufficient to address the wrongs of the past?
- The development of the police force in England
- Transportation as a system of punishment
- The abolition of the slave trade
- The labour system known as indenture
- Abolition of the slave trade
- Foucault’s views on crime and punishment as reflected in texts you have read.
- Karl Marx
- Karl Marx
- The American base at Guantanamo Bay
- The war on terror.

Section Two

Write approximately TEN lines on FIVE of the following topics. Each topic carries five marks. You should spend about 10 minutes on each topic you choose.

- How did Kimberley mine owners establish control over mine labour on the diamond fields between 1870 and 1885, and what were the long term implications of this?
- Why was it necessary for the Australian Government to apologise to the Aboriginal people of Australia, and do you consider that the apology was sufficient to address the wrongs of the past?
- The development of the police force in England
- Transportation as a system of punishment
- The abolition of the slave trade
- The labour system known as indenture
- Abolition of the slave trade
- Foucault’s views on crime and punishment as reflected in texts you have read.
- Karl Marx
- Karl Marx
- The American base at Guantanamo Bay
- The war on terror.
Two Pages