A Guide to the Literature on Aggressive Behavior

The Guide to the Literature on Aggressive Behavior is based on Source Publications provided by ASCA (Automatic Subject Citation Alert) from the ISI (Institute for Scientific Information), 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, U.S.A. Telephone (215) 386-0100.

The following key words are used in weekly computer searches of nearly 5,800 science, technical, and social science journals from around the world:

- Attack
- Fight
- Dominant
- Aggression
- Violence
- Agonistic
- Hostility
- Anger

Articles are drawn from ISI Science Citation Index, Social Sciences Citation Index, and Current Contents. Journals surveyed include the following general areas:

- Agricultural, Biological, and Environmental Science
- Engineering, Technology and Applied Sciences
- Medical and Life Sciences
- Physical and Chemical Sciences
- Social and Behavioral Sciences

Full texts of articles may be obtained from ISI's Genuine Article, which supplies tear sheets or photocopies.

---

AAA (Ge) Violence in school—Bochum (German) (Book review). Kriminalist 50(4):288.

© 1996 Wiley-Liss, Inc.
472 Guide to Literature

Hengele, SW (1996): Treatment of violent juvenile offenders—We have the knowledge—Comment. J Fam Psych 10(2):137–141.

